United in Prayer

This past week you received a joint letter from the chairman of Mission/Ministry and Board of Elders focused on the five prescriptions presented as part of the Mission Formation Study which the congregation has been involved with over the past year. Along with the opportunity to read the proposal/document and view Dr. Phil Johnson’s presentation, which may be accessed on the Peace Lutheran webpage, there is one more opportunity for each member of Peace Lutheran to engage in, and that is individual prayer. The congregation will gather Sunday, April 28th to vote on recommendations brought forth by the Mission Formation Study. The leadership and staff of the congregation wishes to both invite and encourage you to engage in daily prayer that God would lead the congregation in making a decision according to His will for Peace Lutheran Church. Would you be willing to commit to being United in Prayer during the next 15 days? If so, please indicate your desire and commitment to be United in Prayer with fellow members at Peace Lutheran Church by calling the church office 320-587-3031 or email the church office at office@plchutch.org, and saying, “Yes, I will pray.”
